FIFTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

Washington, April 25.—Senate—Just before the senate adjourned Thursday Mr. Rawlins (Utah) concluded his speech in opposition to the Philippine government bill. As on previous days, he devoted much of his time Thursday to a consideration of the testimony taken before the Philippine committee. The senate passed several unobjectionable measures of minor importance and a large number of private pension bills.

House—The house sent the oleomargarine bill to conference after agreeing to the senate amendments with some modifications suggested by the agricultural committee. The opponents of the measure offered a number of amendments, the principal one of which was designed to place renovated butter on the same footing with oleomargarine, but they were overwhelmingly voted down. The latter part of the day was devoted to the agricultural appropriation bill.

Washington, April 26.—Senate—Two speeches occupied the entire attention of the senate Friday. Mr. McCumber (N. D.) discussed his bill to prevent the misbranding and misrepresentation of food products which enter into interstate commerce. Mr. Carmack (Tenn.), one of the minority members of the Philippine committee, spoke in opposition to the Philippine government bill now pending.

House—The house passed 145 private pension bills, including bills to pension the widow of the late Gen. Wm. Ludlow at $50 a month, and the widow of the late "Parson" Brownlow, of Tennessee, at $30 per month. The remainder of the day was devoted to general debate on the agricultural appropriation bill. Mr. Lessler (N. Y.) discussed the necessity for a new post office at New York, Mr. Cocran (Mo.) the trust question, and Mr. H. C. Smith (Mich.) "good roads."

Washington, April 29.—Senate—After a brief discussion Monday the senate agreed to the house amendments to the oleomargarine bill as passed by the senate. The measure now goes to the president for his signature. An effort was made by Mr. Teller (Col.) to amend the measure so as to levy a tax of 10 per cent. on the capital or assets on any butter trust that might be formed, but it was defeated. Mr. Simmons (N. C.) addressed the senate in opposition to the Philippine government bill. He denounced the "cruelties and barbarities" alleged to have been committed on the natives by the American army. The conference report on the Chinese exclusion was adopted. Consideration of the civil sundry appropriation bill was begun but not concluded.

House—Representative Sibley (Pa.) created something of a sensation in the house Monday during the general debate on the agricultural appropriation bill by severely denouncing Gen. Jacob H. Smith for the orders he issued in the Samar campaign. Mr. Sibley's speech was enthusiastically applauded by the democrats and was received with some evidences of approval on the republican side. The speech was considered the more remarkable in that it came from a republican who left the democratic party on the issues raised by the Spanish war and who since has been an ardent expansionist. Mr. Williams (dem. Miss.) endorsed what Mr. Sibley had said. Upon the conclusion of the general debate, slow progress was made with the bill, only 25 of the 49 pages being disposed of.

Washington, April 30.—Senate—A spirited discussion of the Philippine situation occurred in the senate. It revolved around the order alleged to have been issued by Gen. Jacob A. Smith to make the island of Samar a howling wilderness and to kill all male inhabitants over the age of 10 years. The debate took a wide range, however, and many other points were discussed.

House—Under a special order which allowed three hours' debate, but which cut off all opportunity of amendment, the house passed an omnibus public building bill, which will distribute $17,405,450, among 174 cities. As the bill covers into the treasury $1,585,000, the total amount carried by the bill is reduced to that extent. The bill provides for 77 new buildings and sites, six buildings on sites already purchased, 17 buildings on donated sites and 58 increases in appropriation for buildings already authorized. It also provides for the purchase of 16 sites.

Washington, May 1.—Senate—A resolution offered in the senate Wednesday by Mr. Patterson (Col.), directing the secretary of war to order by cable Maj. Gardner, now in the Philippines, to come immediately to Washington, to appear as a witness before the Philippine committee, precipitated a warm discussion. The debate continued for about two hours, considerable feeling being manifested on both sides of the chamber. The resolution finally went over until Thursday morning. The bill for the purchase of the Rosebud reservation in South Dakota and the sundry civil appropriation bills were considered, but no action was taken on them.

House—The house passed the agricultural appropriation bill and began consideration of the District of Columbia appropriation bill, the last but two of the regular supply measures. By the terms of a special rule adopted before the District bill was taken up it will be in order to attach a rider to it to make operative the existing personal tax law of the District, which has been a dead letter for 20 years. Chairman Cannon estimated that there was $100,000,000 of untaxed personal property in Washington. The Gold-fogle resolution calling on the secretary of state for information as to whether American citizens of Jewish faith were excluded from Russia, was adopted.

The New Portuguese Minister. Washington, April 29.—Senhor Visconde de Alte, the newly arrived Portuguese minister, called at the state department Monday to pay his respects to Secretary Hay and will be presented to President Roosevelt in a few days.

Topographic Survey of Porto Rico. Washington, April 29.—The senate committee on Porto Rico Monday authorized a favorable report on an amendment to the sundry civil bill appropriating $5,000 for a topographic survey of the island of Porto Rico.

Why They Laughed.

This is one of the stories told of the recent grand opera engagement in Boston: During a presentation of "Tosca" a number of Italians, sitting in a box, became convulsed with laughter. As Terina was in the midst of her impassioned love song to Mario the people about them first wondered what they were laughing at, and then became incensed at the foreigners. Finally an usher was sent to find out the reason of so much hilarity. One of them said: "Do you know what Terina is singing?" "No," answered the attendant. "Well, instead of a love song, she is singing in impassioned accents: 'Don't turn around; your trousers are torn. Don't turn around; your trousers are torn.'"—Washington Star.

All on the Bill of Fare.

Col. Sam Reed was breakfasting at Delmonico's. After looking over the French menu he said to the waiter: "You may bring me some eggs blushing like Aurora, and some breeches in the royal fashion, velvet sauce, and for dessert be sure you bring a stew of good Christians and a mouthful of ladies." The astonished waiter said: "Sir, we don't serve such dishes." "Sir, you do," said the guest, pointing to the bill of fare at the head of the table. "The royal sacque velouté—compote de bon cretients—bouchée de dames." "All right," said the waiter; "ready in two minutes, sir."—What to Eat.

Seven Principal Routes.

It is a well-known fact that the C. & M. & St. P. Ry. system offers a great many different routes between Chicago and St. Paul and Minneapolis. Its main line between those points is especially well known as the route over which runs the famous "Pioneer Limited" and the Government Fast Mail Train. There are six or seven other routes over a number of which are run through coaches and sleeping cars, which are almost as direct as the principal main line.

These various routes traverse the most interesting and attractive sections of Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota, including the celebrated "Lake Region" of Wisconsin, and cross the Wisconsin river at the famous "Dells," where is the most picturesque scenery in the Northwest. The main line and several others include from 150 to 300 miles of romantic and picturesque scenery along the Mississippi river. On these various lines are located the most important towns and cities in the Northwest.

Both one way and special excursion tickets between Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis are honored by any one of these direct lines. The teachers attending the National Educational Convention at Minneapolis will appreciate and take advantage of this fact as they can have a choice of routes going and returning.

Easily Increased.

"Let us make the capital stock $1,000,000,000," said the first promoter. "All right," said the second, who was preparing the prospectus on the typewriter. "Will it be hard to increase that capital?" asked the first. "No, indeed. All I have to do is to hit this key a few more times."—Baltimore American.

PE-RU-NA CURES CATARRH OF KIDNEYS EVERY TIME.

DANGEROUS KIDNEY DISEASES CURED

Pe-ru-na Creating a National Sensation in the Cure of Chronic Ailments of the Kidneys.

Major T. H. Mars, of the First Wisconsin Cavalry regiment, writes from 1425 Denning street, Chicago, Ill., the following letter:

"For years I suffered with catarrh of the kidneys contracted in the army. Medicine did not help me any until a comrade who had been helped by Pe-ru-na advised me to try it. I bought some at once, and soon found blessed relief. I kept taking it four months, and am now well and strong and feel better than I have done for the past twenty years. thanks to Pe-ru-na."—T. H. Mars.

Mr. John Vance, of Hartford City, Ind., says: "My kidney trouble is much better. I have improved so much that everybody wants to know what medicine I am using. I recommend Pe-ru-na to everybody and some have commenced to use it. The folks all say that if Dr. Hartman's medicine cures me it must be great."—John Vance.

Mr. J. Brake, of Petrolia, Ontario, Canada, writes: "Four years ago I had a severe attack of Bright's disease, which brought me so low the doctor said nothing more could be done for me. I began to take Pe-ru-na and Manalin, and in three months I was a well man, and have continued so ever since."—J. Brake.

At the appearance of the first symptoms of kidney trouble, Pe-ru-na should be taken at once. It stimulates the kidneys to excrete from the blood the accumulating poison, and thus prevents the convulsions which are sure to follow if the poisons are allowed to remain. It gives great vigor to the heart's action and digestive system, both of which are apt to fail rapidly in this disease. Pe-ru-na cures catarrh of the kidneys simply because it cures catarrh wherever located.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

HEALTH AND ALL ITS BLESSINGS

Health will come with all its blessings to those who know the way, and it is mainly a question of right-living, with all the term implies, but the efforts which strengthen the system, the games which refresh and the foods which nourish are important, each in a way, while it is also advantageous to have knowledge of the best methods of promoting freedom from unsanitary conditions. To assist nature, when nature needs assistance, it is all important that the medicinal agents used should be of the best quality and of known value, and the one remedy which acts most beneficially and pleasantly, as a laxative, is—Syrup of Figs—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

With a proper understanding of the fact that many physical ills are of a transient character and yield promptly to the gentle action of Syrup of Figs, gladness and comfort come to the heart, and if one would remove the torpor and strain and congestion attendant upon a constipated condition of the system, take Syrup of Figs and enjoy freedom from the aches and pains, the colds and headaches and the depression due to inactivity of the bowels. In case of any organic trouble it is well to consult a competent physician, but when a laxative is required remember that the most permanently gratifying results will follow personal cooperation with the beneficial effects of Syrup of Figs. It is for sale by all reliable druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

The excellence of Syrup of Figs comes from the beneficial effects of the plants used in the combination and also from the method of manufacture which ensures that perfect purity and uniformity of product essential in a perfect family laxative. All the members of the family from the youngest to the most advanced in years may use it whenever a laxative is needed and share alike in its beneficial effects. We do not claim that Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of known value, but it possesses this great advantage over all other laxatives that it acts gently and pleasantly without disturbing natural functions, in any way, as it is free from every objectionable quality or substance. To get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine and the full name of the Co.—California Fig Syrup Co.—is printed on the front of every package.

SURGICAL OPERATIONS

How Mrs. Bruce, a Noted Opera Singer, Escaped an Operation. Proof That Many Operations for Ovarian Troubles are Unnecessary.

sufficient vitality, an operation for ovarian troubles. Not a very cheerful prospect, to be sure. I, however, was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash; I did so, fortunately for me. Before a month had passed I felt that my general health had improved; in three months more I was cured, and I have been in perfect health since. I did not lose an engagement or miss a meal.

"Your Vegetable Compound is certainly wonderful, and well worthy the praise your admiring friends who have been cured are ready to give you. I always speak highly of it, and you will admit I have good reason to do so."—Mrs. G. Bruce, Lansing, Mich.

WERE SENT TO PRISON

American Naval Officers in Trouble in Venice, Italy.

One Sentenced For Four Months and Ten Days and Remainder Three Months Each—They Belong to the Cruiser Chicago.

Rome, May 1.—It is the opinion of the officers here that the American naval officers imprisoned at Venice must remain in jail until their term is completed. Their demand for provisional liberty has been rejected, as the Italian law does not provide for release under bond in cases of assault against peace officers.

It is stated in some quarters that the king will probably pardon the Americans on the 1st of June, which is a fete day. Details are lacking as to the cause of the row at Venice. A correspondent wires that three officers of the cruiser Chicago were leaving the Cafe Aurau, where they had been drinking to excess. It is said that the officers were intoxicated and upset a table, inaugurating a general row. A crowd of people attacked the officers, who defended themselves with sticks. Marine Langley, seeing the officers fighting, ran to their rescue and entered into the general scrimmage. The officers were not in uniform.

All reports seem to agree that the Americans had become disorderly and insulted citizens. It is said that the Americans fought the police so hotly that the military was called upon for aid.

Washington, May 1.—Secretary Long has received the following cablegram from Capt. Dayton, of the Chicago, dated Venice, in answer to the department's inquiry: "Dodridge Wynn, Ledbetter, Kress and one marine on leave arrested. Principal charge resisting police. Serious under Italian law. Sentences, Wynn, four months, ten days, remainder three months each. Have not yet their full statements or a report from court, but applied for. Resisting arrest largely due to pressing in of a crowd and not understanding language. Appeal made to Rome. Impossible to explain all circumstances by cable. Will mail full report."

Venice, May 1.—The officers of the Chicago are confined in the common prison of St. Mark. They are all together in one room.

Washington, May 1.—At the close of the official day, it was said at the navy department that nothing further had been received concerning the case of the Chicago officers, nor had any further instructions been sent to the European station. Secretary Long has placed Secretary Hay in possession of all the information the navy department has received relative to the affair at Venice, and it is now for the state department to pursue the negotiations.

Rome, May 1.—A press representative has been informed at the foreign office that George V. Meyer, the United States ambassador here, has not demanded the release of the imprisoned officers of the cruiser Chicago, and that the latter, by their appeal from the sentence of the court, have submitted themselves to Italian law. It is believed at the foreign office that any diplomatic action in this matter would be out of place while the question remained under the consideration of Italian court.

MEAT ON THE FREE LIST.

Ways and Means Committee Took No Action on the Bill.

Washington, May 1.—The ways and means committee has taken no action on the bills to place meat on the free list or the resolution to investigate the beef trust which has been referred to it, and Chairman Payne expressed the opinion that nothing will be done. Pending the investigation which the department of justice is conducting, he does not think it proper for the committee to take action on the resolution.

Chicago Meat Trade Stagnated.

THE RAILS SPREAD.

Train Ditched and Five People Killed and Many Hurt.

Keokuk, Ia., April 30.—The California limited on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe road, eastbound, was derailed on a curve at Cama, a switch five miles west of Medill, Mo., while going at tremendous speed. Five persons were killed and 23 injured.

The killed: S. T. Franch, Chicago; Mr. Weltheimer, Santiago, Cal.; a son of Henry C. Gates, of Australia, 5 years old; Rufus Buster, Chicago, waiter in dining car; C. C. Fairbanks, Chicago, waiter in dining car. The injured include Conductor Chas. Sargent and a twin sister of the Gates boy. The parents of the twins were also badly bruised.

Mr. and Mrs. Gates were en route from Australia and were with their children eating in the dining car when the wreck occurred. The train was over an hour late and passed Wyconda, the last station left, at a rate of 65 miles an hour. When the heavy train struck the curve at Cama the rails spread.

The train consisted of two mail cars, seven Pullmans and one dining car. The mail car, the dining car and the two forward sleepers went into the ditch. The tender was ditched, but the engine remained on the track. The derailed coaches were smashed into kindling wood, even the axles being bent out of shape. The conductor went to a farm house and telephoned a report of the wreck. The railroad officials then hurried a relief train from Ft. Madison.

The trainmen worked nobly, assisted by unhurt passengers, and neighboring farmers. The place of the wreck is distant from all communication. The dining car turned completely over and rolled down a ten-foot embankment, and two coaches were thrown clear off the right of way. Traffic was resumed Tuesday night.

Springfield, O., April 30.—At the meeting of the board of directors of the Wittenberg college Tuesday, it was decided to offer free tuition for one year to the high school graduates receiving the highest grades. This will affect Ohio, Indiana, Southern Michigan and Northern Kentucky.

Grau, of this state, has been mentioned for the professorship. The board desires to raise an endowment fund of $25,000 and more than $20,000 of this amount has already been subscribed.

Cameos are again in vogue—the real old-fashioned shell cameos. They are cut in the old classic heads, in "shepherdesses" and landscape designs, but more fashionable yet is the fad of having your own profile or that of your "heart's love" cut.

Stripes are now to denominated the realm of table linen—broad satiny stripes—and one handsome pattern had the most exquisite chrysanthemums of the sketchy Japanese sort strewn over its striped surface. Other flower designs are used in the same effective way.

A CHEMIST of the agricultural department says the waters of Hot Springs, Ark., are of little or no value as a remedial agent, and no more so than the waters of the Potomac. The cures effected there are due to systematic bathing, regular diet, change of scenery and a good climate. Perhaps as the Christian Scientists assert, the persons cured were only diseased in their minds.

The rise in the price of meats is giving serious trouble to the people all over the county. Many persons have been forced to give up their daily rations of beef and mutton and resort to substitute in the way of cereals, vegetables and fish. The effects are more felt, probably, among the laboring people than among those who are well-to-do. The natural consequence is a very general protest from the labor organizations, east and west, against the rates imposed by the Dingley law upon cattle and fresh meats. The tariff on cattle is 27½ per cent, upon sheep $1.50 per head and upon fresh meat imported from outside the United States a tax of 2 cents per pound is imposed.

The plea of the packers that the rise in prices of beef is due to the scarcity of cattle, is not borne out by the reports of receipts of cattle on the hoof at any of the large packing points, comparing this year with last year. Be that as it may, the people are demanding that these taxes now are of but little value to the raisers of cattle and serve only the purpose of enriching the beef trust. They demand therefore, that these taxes be removed, and resolutions are being adopted by labor and political clubs requesting senators and representatives to repeal at once these taxes upon food.

This is a movement that is likely to give the managers of the Republican party very serious trouble. If they refuse to heed these appeals from the ranks of the common people they will excite an indignation that will vent itself at the polls in the coming November. On the other hand, if they should repeal the taxes in question they will make another breach in the solid wall of Dingley protection, enrage a body of men who are large contributors to the Republican campaign fund and leave themselves without excuse for not removing other taxes equally unnecessary and burdensome to the people and that can be justified only because they are enriching to combinations and trusts whose friendship and donations are necessary to the Republican plans of campaign. The situation is one circulated to give the Republican party managers some bad hours before the present congressional adjourns.

It would not be a bad move for the Democrats in congress to press this matter upon the attention of their Republican colleagues with a strong insistence.—Atlanta Constitution.

THE FAIR.

CALEB POWERS, twice convicted of the most heinous of crimes, is having quite a run in the Republican and other assassination organs. Like the rest of his class, he protested his innocence, but he protested too much. The general public agrees very fully with the two juries that have passed on his case that if he is innocent the evidence and the circumstances would hardly furnish so strong a case to the contrary.—Lexington Democrat.

A Washington dispatch says: "Capt. John R. Howard, of Lexington, was the Postmaster General in the interest of his candidacy to the Lexington post-office. Capt. Howard is strongly indorsed by citizens of Lexington, and in addition is supported by the G. A. R. organization of the State, which, since it failed to land the Pension Agency, desires that one of its members be recognized. The President is favorably inclined to Capt. Howard's candidacy. Internal Revenue Commissioner Yorkes and Pension Agent Cowes have seen the President in the interest of Postmaster H. Clay Elkin, who is a candidate for reappointment. Senator Delmas has not yet made a recommendation in the Lexington case."

The condition of Congressman Amos J. Cummins, who is critically ill in Baltimore, is reported as changed.

HARRY ALLAN DENNIS.

On next Monday evening, May 5th, Mr. Harry Allan Dennis will present his delightful reading from "The Wages of the Cabbage Patch," at Odd Fellows' Hall, in this city, at 8 o'clock. Wherever Mr. Dennis has appeared his audiences have been charmingly entertained, and Paris may look forward to a genuine treat. Admission 25 cents, children 15 cents.

Of Mr. Dennis, the Louisville Times, says:

The pleasure which Miss Alice Caldwell Hegan's book, "Mrs. Wigg's of the Cabbage Patch," has brought to its countless readers has been in some degree equalled by that enjoyed by the enthusiastic audiences to which Mr. Harry Allan Dennis has presented the story. Himself a writer of songs, stories and poems and an eloquentist of marked ability, Mr. Dennis knows how to interpret the "Cabbage Patch" characters with unusual sympathy. While yet in college at Georgetown, he has been before the public as an entertainer for two years or more and his success is very gratifying to a wide circle of friends in Louisville, his native city.

About Your Toggery

DEAR SIR:

Spring is with us once again—got in the habit of coming about this time of the year.

Spring, the dandelion and the hand organ man generally arrives on the same train. But, say! What have you got on under that Winter ulster? What are you going to wear when you take it off? We have an idea that you will be in the market for a Spring Suit, and, perhaps, a Top Coat, a new Hat, some new Spring Ties, Shirts, etc., etc. Can't get along with just clothes at this season of the year. Spring is a time when a man's haberdashery is very conspicuous, everything shows in the Spring, even your sox.

Now, if we have made a good guess and you do need some Spring plumage, let nothing prevent your coming to see our display. Lucky will be the man who finds his way inside our new Spring garments. The new cuts in suits and overcoats, in the swellest fabrics, are here. The smartest haberdashery and the most correct hats, are awaiting to greet you, and our prices will touch your pocket-book so lightly that you will hardly feel it.

We would appreciate your patronage and spare no pains to please you, and still we know that you are not obliged to buy your Spring outfit here—but my! how much better you'll look, if you do.

Very truly yours,

Parker & James,

A TRIBUTE.

Resolutions of Respect to J. C. Graves From the Teachers of the Paris Colored School, of Which He Was The Principal.

While the Father has been very gracious in permitting us to remain on His beautiful earth, He has interwoven shade with light, and called to a higher and better work our much beloved and honorable Principal and Brother, J. C. Graves.

His home is desolate, his friends mourn his departure, but God's promises never fail.

He reigns, His everlasting arms are beneath us, but we often long for "The touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still."

Brother Graves was a man of large and varied information, and served his race and the community as well as a reformer. His worth in the school room cannot be over estimated. But since it has pleased the Almighty to call him from labor to his reward:

1. RESOLVED, That as his assistants, we cherish his memory.

2. RESOLVED, That we extend to his devoted wife and loving children our deepest sympathy and love and pray the God of all mercy may be more to them than any earthly companion or parent.

3. RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

A SILENT MESSAGE.

Trembling I went to gaze upon the dead
With fear some nameless horror there to see.
But to my heart its sculptured silence said:
"O quick and strong, be not afraid of me!"

"There is no terror in this silence white,
This muted pause in life's activity;
Spare exhalation, very memorial rite,
But for thine own heart's ease weep over me!"

"Fast on my closed and heavy-lidded eyes
Lie youth, love, passion, age, eternity,
The deep sea soundings of the centuries—
E'en life itself is but a part of me!"

"Touch me or not upon the lips and brow,
Love will not wrong me in its memory;
Love cannot pierce my isolation now;
Give to the living all thou owest me!"

"Matters it not the pyre, the sea, the soil,
For this that was the mortal part of me?
Fearless take up thy sacramental toll;
Fearless meets death, life's crowning victory!"

—Marguerite Merington, in New England Magazine.

My Strangest Case

BY GUY BOOTHBY.

Author of "Dr. Nikola," "The Beautiful White Devil," "Pharos, The Egyptian," etc.

(Copyrighted, 1901, by Ward, Lock & Co.)

"Now," I said to myself after he had gone, "this looks like developing into an affair after my own heart. I am most anxious to discover who my mysterious enemy can be. It might be Grobelaar, but I fancy he is still in Berlin. There's Tremasty, but I don't think he would dare venture to England. No, when I come to think of it, this business does not seem to belong to either of them."

I took from my pocket the watch which was to have played such an important part in the drama and consulted it. It was just half-past eleven, therefore I had exactly half an hour to get to the rendezvous. I called Wilson and congratulated him on the success which had attended our efforts of that evening.

"It's a good thing you came out of it so well, sir," he said. "They were a nasty pair of chaps, and would have thought as much of 'outing' you as they would of drinking a pot of ale."

"But thank goodness, they didn't succeed," I replied. "As the saying goes, 'a miss has never killed a man yet.' And now, Wilson, you'd better be off home to bed. Turn out the gas before you go. Good night!"

"Good night, sir," he answered, and then I put on my hat and left the office.

I found when I stepped into the street that the character of the night had changed. Thick clouds obscured the sky, and a few drops of rain were falling. At first I felt inclined to take a cab, but on second thoughts I changed my mind, and putting up my umbrella strode along in the direction of St. Martin's church.

The theaters were over by this time, and the streets were beginning to grow empty. I passed the Gaiety where a middle-aged gentleman, decidedly intoxicated, was engaged in a noisy altercation with a policeman, who was threatening to take him to Bow street if he did not go quietly home, and at last approached the spot for which I was making. I took up my position on the darker side of Holywell street, and waited. So far I seemed to have the thoroughfare to myself, but I had still some three or four minutes to wait.

At last midnight sounded, and as I heard it I concealed myself more carefully in my doorway and watched. I was not to be kept long in suspense, for the new day was scarcely three minutes old when a hansom drove up to the other side of the church, and a man alighted. He paid off the man and wished him good night, and then came along the roadway at the back of the church. From where I stood I could see his figure distinctly, but was not able to distinguish his face. He was dressed in a black cloak, and wore a deer-stalker hat upon his head. That he was the man I wanted I felt sure, for what would anyone else be doing there at such an hour? That he was surprised at not finding his bravos awaiting him was very certain, for he looked up the street, down the street, peered into Holywell street, where, thank goodness, he did not see me, then along the Strand in a westerly direction, and afterwards came and took up his position within half a dozen paces of where I was hidden. Presently he took a cigar case from his pocket, opened it, selected a weed, and struck a match to light it. The flame illumined his face so that I could see it distinctly. If I had not had myself well under control, I believe I should have uttered an exclamation of surprise that could not have failed to attract attention. The man who had set those rascals on to try and get rid of me was none other than Mr. Edward Bayley, the managing director of the Santa Cruz Mining company of the Argentine Republic!

Here was a surprise indeed! What on earth did it all mean?

CHAPTER V.

I must confess that the discovery I had made behind St. Martin's church, and which I described at the end of the previous chapter, had proved too much for me. What possible reason could Mr. Bayley have for wanting to rid himself of me? Only the morning before he had been anxious to secure my services in the interests of his company, and now here he was hiring a couple of ruffians to prevent me from doing my work, if not to take my life. When I reached my hotel again, and went to bed, I lay awake half the night endeavoring to arrive at an understanding of it; but, try how I would, I could not hit upon a satisfactory solution. Upon one thing, however, I had quite made up my mind. As soon as the city offices were open, I would call at that of the Santa Cruz Mining company, and put a few questions to Mr. Bayley which I fancied that individual would find difficult and rather unpleasant to answer. This plan I carried out, and at tea o'clock I stood in the handsome outer office of the company.

"I should be glad to see the managing director, if he could spare me a few moments," I said to the youth who waited upon me in answer to his question.

"He's engaged, sir, at present," the lad replied. "If you will take a seat, however, I don't fancy he will be very long."

I did as he directed, and in the interval amused myself by studying a large map of the Argentine Republic, which hung upon the wall. I had practically exhausted its capabilities when the door opened, and a tall, military-looking man emerged and passed out into the street.

"What name shall I say, sir?" inquired the clerk, as he descended from his high stool and approached me.

"Fairfax," I replied, giving him my card. "I think the manager will know my name."

The clerk disappeared to return a few moments later with the request that I would follow him. Preparing myself for what I fully expected would be a scene, I entered the director's sanctum. It was a handsome room, and was evidently used as a board-room as well as an office, for there was a long table in the middle, surrounded by at least a dozen chairs. At the further end a gentleman of venerable appearance was seated. He rose as I entered, and bowed to me.

"In what way can I be of service to you, Mr. Fairfax?" he inquired, after I had seated myself.

"I am afraid there has been a mistake," I answered, looking about me for Mr. Bayley. "I told the clerk that I desired to see the managing director."

"You are seeing him," he returned with a smile, "for I am he."

"In that case I must have misunderstood the gentleman who called upon me two days ago," I replied, with some surprise.

"Do I understand you to say that a gentleman from this office called upon you?"

"Yes, a Mr. Bayley, a tall, good-looking man, of between 38 and 40 years of age."

The old gentleman stared, as well he might.

"But there is no Mr. Bayley here," he said. "We have no one of that name in our employ. I fear the man, whoever he was, must have been playing a trick upon you. I sincerely trust he has done no damage. Might I ask what he called upon you about?"

HE ROSE AS I ENTERED AND BOWED TO ME.

"He called on me on behalf of your company," I answered. "He informed me that for some time past you have ascertained the gravest suspicions concerning the manager of your mines in the Argentine. He said that information had reached your ears to the effect that the man in question was in league with a notorious swindler in New York, and, though you could not bring any proved charge against him, you were equally certain that he was robbing you in order to fill his own pockets. He appeared to be most anxious to persuade me to go to the republic at once in order that I might inquire into matters and report to you. I was to be away three months, and was to be paid £5,000 and my expenses for my trouble."

"My good sir, this is really preposterous," the old gentleman returned. "I can positively assure you that there is not a word of truth in his assertion. Our manager in the Argentine is an old and valued friend, and I would stake my life on his fidelity. Nothing would induce us to think even of sending a detective out to spy upon him."

"I am beginning to believe that I should like to meet Mr. Bayley again," I remarked. "He has a fine imagination, and from what you tell me, it seems that I should have looked a fool had I gone out to South America on such an errand." "It would have been exceedingly inconvenient not only for you, but also for us," said the manager. "I shall report this matter at the board meeting to-day. We must endeavor to discover who this man is, and also his reasons for acting as he has done.

Should we hear anything further upon the subject, we will at once communicate with you."

"I should be glad if you will do so," I replied. "I should like to get this matter cleared up as soon as possible. There may be something behind it that we do not understand."

I thanked him for the interview, and then took my departure, more puzzled by it than I had been by anything for a long time. When I reached my office I took the card from a drawer, which Mr. Edward Bayley had sent to me, and dispatched it by special messenger to the office of the famous mining company. That afternoon another surprise was in store for me. Shortly after lunch, and when I was in the middle of a letter to Kitwater, a message was received through the telephone to the effect that the managing director of the Santa Cruz Mining company, whom I had seen that morning, was on his way to call upon me.

"Something has evidently come to light," I reflected. "Perhaps the mystery surrounding Mr. Edward Bayley is about to be cleared up, for I must confess I do not like the look of it."

A quarter of an hour later the manager was ushered into my presence. "Good afternoon, Mr. Fairfax," he said. "I have come to ask you, if you will permit me, a few questions, and also to tell you that I think we have discovered who it is that is masquerading as the occupant of my position. You gave me this morning a rough description of the individual who called upon you. Can you recall anything particular about his appearance? Any strange mark, for instance. Anything by which we should be able to swear to his identity?"

"I would swear to his identity anywhere, without a mark," I replied. "But since you do mention it, I remember that he had a small triangular scar upon his left cheek." "Then it is the same man after all," said the manager. "That is certainly extraordinary. When our secretary spoke to me about him after you had left I had my doubts; now, however, they are quite removed. Why he should have called upon you in such a guise is a question I cannot for the life of me answer with any sort of satisfaction."

"Perhaps you will be a little more explicit," I said. "You have not told me yet how it is that you have been able to locate the gentleman in question. This morning you must remember you had no sort of remembrance of him."

"In that case you must forgive me," he replied. "As a matter of fact I was so much carried away by my excitement that I could think of nothing else. However, I have promised you the story, and you shall have it. Some years ago, eight or ten perhaps, we had a young man working for us in the Argentine as an overseer. He was in many respects a brilliant young fellow, and would doubtless have done well for himself in time, had he been able to go straight. Unfortunately, however, he did not do so. He went from bad to worse. At last he was caught in a flagrant piece of dishonesty, and was immediately discharged. When I tell you that that young man had a mark such as you described upon his cheek, you may be able to derive some idea of what follows."

"Might it not be a pure coincidence?" I replied.

"Not in this case, I fancy," he answered. "What makes me the more inclined to believe that it is the same individual, is the fact that our secretary met him in Leadenhall street only a few days ago. He looked older, but had evidently prospered in the world. As a matter of fact, Warner described him as being irreproachably dressed and turned out. I trust his good fortune was honestly come by; but I must own, from what I know of him, that I have my doubts."

"But what possible reason could this individual have for calling upon me, and why should he have made me such an offer as I have described to you?"

The director shook his head. The question was evidently beyond him. "I can assign no sort of reason for it," he said, "unless he has some hope of being able to get you out of England for a time."

"I don't see how that could benefit him," I replied. "I am connected with no case in which he has any sort of interest."

"You never can tell," the old gentleman replied. "From what I know of him, Gideon Hayle was always—"

"Gideon what?" I cried, springing to my feet. "Did I understand you to say Gideon Hayle?"

"That's the name of the young man of whom I have been speaking to you," he replied. "But what makes you so excited?"

"Because I can understand everything now," I declared. "Good heavens! What an idiot I have been not to have seen the connection before! Now I know why Gideon Hayle tried to lure me out of England with his magnificent offer. Now I see why he set these roughs upon me. It's all as plain as daylight!"

"I am afraid I do not quite understand," said my companion in his turn. "But it is quite evident to me that you know more of Hayle's past life than I do!"

"I should think I did," I replied. "By Jove, what a blackguard the man must be! He robbed his two partners of enormous wealth in China, left them in the hands of the Chinese to be tortured and maimed for life, and now that he knows that I am acting for them in order to recover their treasure, he endeavors to put me out of the way. But you've not done it yet, Mr. Hayle," I continued, bringing my fist down with a bang upon the table, "and what's more, clever as you may be, you are not likely to accomplish such an end. You'll discover that I can take very good care of myself, but before very long you'll find that you are being taken care of by somebody else."

"This is a strange affair indeed, Mr. Fairfax," said the manager, "and it is evident that I have been of some assistance to you. I need not say that I am very glad, the more so because it is evident that our company is not involved in any system of fraud. I will not disguise from you that I had my fears that it was the beginning of trouble for us all."

"You may disabuse your mind of that once and for all," I answered. "If there is any trouble brewing it is for our friend, Mr. Hayle. That gentleman's reckoning is indeed likely to be a heavy one. I would not stand in his shoes for something."

There was a brief and somewhat uncomfortable pause.

"And now allow me to wish you a very good afternoon," the old gentleman observed.

"Good afternoon," I replied, "and many thanks for the service you have rendered me. It has helped me more than I can say."

"Pray don't mention it, my dear sir, don't mention it," replied the kindly old gentleman, as he moved towards the door. "I am very glad to have been useful to you."

A MAN OF INTUITION.

The Investment of a Small Sum of Money That Was Made to Good Advantage.

"I had just come back to the store from my lunch one day," said the merchant, as burglarproof safes were under discussion, says the Detroit Free Press, "when a middle-aged man with a hard-up look entered my private office after me. The object of his call was to strike me for half a dollar, and I am surprised yet that I didn't at once turn him down. I guess it was because he had the look of a first-class mechanic out of a job, and because trade was rushing with me. To accede to his request I had to open my big safe, and as I handed him two quarters he thanked me and added:

"Excuse me, sir, but isn't that safe of yours too dead easy?"

"How do you mean?" I asked.

"Why, it's a four-number combination, but you have it set only on two. I think I could open it in a couple of minutes."

"If you can, I'll give you five dollars," I said, feeling a little nettled at his disparagement. I shut and locked the door and stood back for him, and in less than 40 seconds he had swung it open.

"I told you it was dead easy," he said, without a smile.

"But how did you get on to the combination?"

"Oh, it's intuition, I guess. Better call in a man and have the lock set on four numbers. It could be opened then, but it might take an hour or two. Thanks again, and good day."

"I didn't let the grass grow under my feet," continued the merchant, "and from that day on I carried a heap less money in the safe. The man might have been a mechanic, but somehow I've always had the idea that he was a safe cracker, and that I made a good investment when I handed over that $5.00. He might have got $2,000 that night as easy as rolling off a log."

A Sweet, Seductive Voice.

"You can talk all you've a mind to about romance," growled the man who can never keep anything to himself, "I've had enough of it."

"Why, what's the matter?"

"Well, you know I have always judged people more or less by their voices. The other day I got a call on the telephone from somebody up on Connecticut avenue, and the voice was sweet enough to make you dream of peaches and cream. It was a real sweet, coaxing kind of a voice. I looked the house up and found there was one unmarried girl living there with her father, a widower, and I got an introduction just on the strength of that voice."

"Well, she was 40 years old, with a voice like a buzzsaw. The girl who had come to the telephone was the maid, and she was about the color of good chocolate."—Washington Times.

On the Streets.

Ragged, barefoot, cheeks hollowed as if by hunger. "Mister," he said, "please buy my last paper. I ain't got no home, and—"

"Neither have I," said the man, gruffly, and passed on.

It was a wonder that the boy hadn't noticed that the man was almost as ragged as himself.

The same appeal to two well-kept passers-by, one of whom said as they passed on: "As I was saying, you never can tell when these people are deserving."

That's generally the stand the world takes in these matters. It "never can tell," and hasn't time to be told.

But then—Christ died for all kind sorts of people.—Atlanta Constitution.

4th dam by Pilot, Jr., sire of dams of Maud S. 2:08 3-4, Jay-Eye-See 2:06 1-4, etc.

WIGGINS is a very handsome horse, with the best feet and legs I ever saw. He was a very high-class race horse. He won five straight races at 2 years old without losing a heat, defeating all the cracks of the year 1895. He trotted the last end of a mile, over a slow track, in 1:15 1-2, and could have gone faster. While it is saying a great deal, I assert that he is siring as much and as uniform speed as any stallion in Kentucky standing at any price. He had only four colts as old as 3 years last season. Bessie Brown (was second at 2 years in 2:20 1-2) trotted a ¾ track in 2:15. Edna Earl, same track, in 2:33 1-3, half in 1:08. Rexa Wise took a 3-year-old record of 2:21½, and Black Arthur trotted in 2:26 to cart. Wigwag, a 2-year-old, trotted a ¾ track in 2:28½ on 15th of June, and was sold for $2,500. A yearling filly scarcely bridle-wise, trotted a mile to cart in 2:37½. They all trot.

As a producer of dams Mambrino Patchen is without an equal. 2d dam, Emma, record 2:23, made in 1863, to high wheel sulky weighing 96 lbs., dam of Jerry 2:27½.

PATCHEN WILTON is a coal black horse, and for beauty, grace and action he is without a peer in Kentucky. With the rise of horse shows and road driving nowadays, the horse with plenty of good looks, action, soundness and speed, is the one that brings the fancy price. All of these virtues are combined in Patchen Wilton, and this is backed by the most fashionable breeding in the books. His sire is one of the greatest sons of George Wilkes, his dam a great producing daughter of Mambrino Patchen, his second dam a great producing daughter of Mambrino Patchen, his second dam a great race mare in her day and a producer.

GIRLS TERROR-STRUCK

A Panic Follows an Accident in a Tobacco Factory.

Eight Girls and Young Women Were Killed, Three Fatally Hurt and More Than Two Score Were Seriously Injured.

Philadelphia, May 1.—An unfortunate accident to a deaf and dumb boy, Isador Bacucus, was directly responsible for the death of eight girls and young women, and the fatal injury of three others and the serious injury of more than two score of girls employed in the cigar factory of Harburger, Homan & Co., a branch of the American Tobacco Co., located at Tenth street and Washington avenue.

The building in which the disaster occurred is a five-story brick structure and reaches an entire block. Twelve hundred persons were at work at the time of the accident, 90 per cent. of whom were girls whose ages range from 12 years upward.

The trouble began on the fourth floor of the structure. Bacucus, who was janitor of the building, started for the fifth floor for a box of twine. When the elevator was at the top of the shaft Bacucus pulled the rope to bring it down. He opened the door leading to the shaft and leaned forward to see where the carriage was. As he did so, the elevator, which was descending slowly, struck him across the back of the neck, pinioning his head between the elevator and the floor. A stock boy released Bacucus and cried for help. The foreman rushed from the building to call an ambulance and immediately there was a panic among the employees. Some of the younger girls fainted, while others, not being able to control their feelings, cried fire.

Instantly there was a mad rush for the stairway leading to the Tenth street entrance. The girls rushed down the narrow staircase until they reached a bend in the exit between the second and third floors. In their eagerness to escape the frightened leaders fell. Others immediately following tripped over the struggling mass of humanity and in less than a minute there were hundreds of children and young women struggling in the passageway. The shrieks and screams of terror-stricken girls could be heard for blocks or more. During the excitement an alarm of fire was turned in, but before the engines could reach the scene several of the occupants of the building had rushed to the windows and jumped to the street, a distance of over 50 feet. Helen Tolini, one of those to jump, was instantly killed. When the firemen and policemen arrived every effort was made to quiet the terrorized girls. The firemen rushed up the stairway and begged the girls to be calm, telling them that there was absolutely no danger, but the sight of the firemen seemed only to add fuel to the flame. While the policemen and firemen were endeavoring to quiet the girls on the stairway ladders were being run up on the outside of the building and the employees who had climbed out onto the fire escape and window ledges, were quickly taken to the street. After a few minutes the men were enabled to check the awful crush on the stairway and then began the work of rescuing those who had been trampled and crushed between the second and third floors. The alarm for ambulances had been turned in and as quick as the dead and injured could be carried from the building, they were hurried to hospitals.

OFFICIAL CAREER CLOSED.

Secretary Long Retires From Head of the Navy Department.

Washington, May 1.—Secretary Long closed his official career as the head of the naval establishment Wednesday. Affairs progressed as usual and the event was unmarked save by the calling of many friends to take official leave of the retiring secretary. Noticeable among the day's callers were Secretary Hay and Mr. Moody. Secretary Long's successor. It was arranged that Secretary Moody assume the duties of secretary of the navy Thursday morning. Very few changes will follow the change in the head of the department. Only one which will take effect at once will be the installation of Fred L. Fishback as confidential clerk in place of Mr. Greer, who has been appointed an assistant paymaster in the navy.

New Consul General at Guatemala. Washington, May 1.—The state department has decided to place another man in the consulate generalship at Guayaquil, Ecuador, in place of Berry M. ANOTHER ENGAGEMENT.

Colombian Insurgents Driven From Strong Entrenchments.

Colon, Colombia, May 1.—The government gunboat Gen. Pinzon returned here Wednesday from Bocas del Toro.

An expedition composed of 400 government troops, under Gen. Gomez, the military governor of Colon, and Gen. Ferrera, left Bocas on board the Pinzon April 26, to force the insurgents to evacuate Chiriqui Grande, to which place the latter retired about a fortnight ago after having relinquished the control of Bocas to the government forces.

Fighting occurred Sunday, April 27, at Las Penas, seven miles from Chiriqui Grande, where Col. Buendia, with 500 insurgents, occupied strongly entrenched positions on the summit of a mountain. The government troops advanced and the soldiers from the department of Santander captured the rebel trenches. The government lost 60 men in killed or wounded in this engagement. The losses of the insurgents are not known, but they are reported to be considerable. When the insurgents were driven from their positions they fell back and swam the River Guarumo. On the other side of the river they were reinforced by 500 more troops under the command of Victoriano Lorenzo. Gen. Ferrera was wounded in the attack on the entrenchments.

A launch belonging to the canal company has just arrived here from Bocas. She brings wounded government soldiers.

Gen. Gomez is now at Bocas with a large force. Reinforcements will be sent him at once.

POSTAL CURRENCY.

The Committee Will Recommend a Measure For Its Establishment.

Washington, May 1.—The committee of postal and treasury experts, who have been considering the question of a fractional postal currency, probably will recommend to congress a measure calling for the establishment of a currency of notes adopted with improvements from the postal notes used in Canada, Great Britain, Germany and France. This plan calls for books of fractional currency arranged in detachable coupon form, which are to be obtained from post offices or rural free delivery carriers in amounts from five cents to two dollars.

Washington, May 1.—Congressman J. J. Butler, of Missouri, is made the defendant in a suit for $10,000 damages instituted in the District supreme court by August Scholz, a waiter at a local hotel. Scholz alleges that while serving the Missourian at the hotel Saturday the latter assaulted him. He says Mr. Butler used vile and abusive language toward him and struck him a heavy blow with a water bottle.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost for ever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.

Like a Drowning Man.

"Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such hold of me that I could scarcely go," writes Geo. S. Marsh, well-known attorney of Nocona, Tex. "I took quantities of pepsin and other medicines but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grabs at a straw I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once and after a few bottles am sound and well." Kodol is only preparation which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble.—W. T. Brooks

James Adair, of Fern Leaf, Mason county, purchased of James M. Allison, 39 acres of land, near Paris, at $65 an acre.

There is said to be a poor prospect for most kinds of fruit in some sections of the country. In other sections the prospects are good for an abundant crop of apples, pears, cherries and plums.

The reports of damage to the wheat crop in Kentucky by the hot weather of the past few days make unpleasant reading. There is a chance, however, that later developments will show that the injury has not been as great as was at first supposed.

CANCEROUS ULCERS

Are in many respects like other ulcers or sores, and this resemblance often proves fatal. Valuable time is lost in fruitless efforts to heal the sore with washes and salves, because the germs of Cancer that are multiplying in the blood and the new Cancer cells which are constantly developing keep up the irritation and discharge, and at last sharp shooting pains announce the approach of the eating and sloughing stage, and a hideous, sickening cancerous sore begins its destructive work.

No ulcer or sore can exist without some predisposing internal cause that has poisoned the blood, and the open discharging ulcer, or the festering sore on the lip, cheek or other part of the body will continue to spread and eat deeper into the flesh unless the blood is purified and the Cancer germs or morbid matter eliminated from the circulation.

S. S. S. cleanses the blood of all decaying effete matter. It has great antitoxic and purifying properties that soon destroy the germs and poisons and restore the blood to its natural condition. And when pure blood is carried to the ulcer or sore the healing process begins, the discharge ceases and the place heals over and new skin forms. S. S. S. is a strictly vegetable blood purifier containing no mercury or minerals of any description.

SSS If you have an ulcer or chronic sore of any kind, write us about it, medical advice will cost you nothing. Books on Cancer and other diseases of the blood will be sent free.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is he, a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem; then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the disease from the system. It is a cure all but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at W. T. Brooks'. Get Green's Special Almanac.

In February, 1899, I noticed a small lump on my lower lip. The doctor cauterized it but another came and broke out into an open sore. I began to take S. S. S. and after I had taken seven bottles the place healed entirely and no signs of the disease have been seen since. W. P. Brown, Hollands, S. C.

No ulcer or sore can exist without some predisposing internal cause that has poisoned the blood, and the open discharging ulcer, or the festering sore on the lip, cheek or other part of the body will continue to spread and eat deeper into the flesh unless the blood is purified and the Cancer germs or morbid matter eliminated from the circulation.

S. S. S. cleanses the blood of all decaying effete matter. It has great antitoxic and purifying properties that soon destroy the germs and poisons and restore the blood to its natural condition. And when pure blood is carried to the ulcer or sore the healing process begins, the discharge ceases and the place heals over and new skin forms. S. S. S. is a strictly vegetable blood purifier containing no mercury or minerals of any description.

SSS If you have an ulcer or chronic sore of any kind, write us about it, medical advice will cost you nothing. Books on Cancer and other diseases of the blood will be sent free.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

"Something New Under The Sun."

All doctors have tried to cure CATARRH by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have tried to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a case study and specialty of the treatment of CATARRH, has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures CATARRH by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the afflicted parts. This wonderful remedy is known as "SNUFFLES" the GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE and is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine sufficient for a full month's treatment and everything necessary to its perfect use.

"SNUFFLES" is the only perfect CATARRH CURE ever made and is now recognized as the only safe and also wonderfully quick to relieve HAY FEVER or COLD in the HEAD.

CATARRH when neglected often leads to CONSUMPTION — "SNUFFLES" will save you if you use it at once. It is no ordinary remedy, but a complete treatment which is positively guaranteed to cure CATARRH in any form or stage if used according to the directions which accompany each package. Don't delay but send for it at once and write full particulars as to your condition and you will receive special advice from the discoverer of this wonderful remedy regarding your case without cost to you by return of the regular price of "SNUFFLES" the "GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE."

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Brain Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Greens August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at W. T. Brooks'. Burns, cuts and other wounds often fail to heal properly if neglected and become troublesome sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve prevents such consequences.
